JOIN DFI FOR 'INVESTING: WHAT'S NEW AND WHAT'S NOT'
ON APRIL 23

Event Continues 'Boomers to Zoomers: Building A Secure Path to Retirement' Series

The Kentucky Department of Financial Institutions (DFI) is partnering with the Investor Protection Trust, Detroit Public Television and PBS Books to produce "Investing: What's New and What's Not," on Friday, April 23, 2021, at 1 p.m. ET.

"Investing: What's New & What's Not" will livestream on the Kentucky Public Protection Cabinet's Facebook page at <https://fb.me/e/dvuQdlR6j>. The event will feature qualified experts who will discuss many of the new investment options, the tried-and-true investment strategies, and how both can be part of a retirement savings plan.

The event will be interactive, allowing participants to ask questions and submit comments. After the live event, a recording will be available on DFI's website at <http://kfi.ky.gov> and on WI65.org, along with a variety of tools and resources for savers and investors of all ages and at all stages of life.

This is the second in a series of 12 Boomers to Zoomers: Building a Secure Path to Retirement virtual events. Future events will take place on the fourth Friday of each month at 1 p.m., ET.

###

DFI, <http://kfi.ky.gov>, is an agency in the Public Protection Cabinet. For more than 100 years, it has supervised the financial services industry by examining, chartering, licensing and registering various financial institutions, securities firms and professionals operating in Kentucky. DFI's mission is to serve Kentucky residents and protect their financial interests by maintaining a stable financial industry, continuing effective and efficient regulatory oversight, promoting consumer confidence, encouraging economic opportunities, and promoting sound financial decisions through financial literacy and empowerment programs.
