LT. GOV. COLEMAN CELEBRATES FINANCIAL LITERACY MONTH
VIRTUAL READING PROVIDES RESOURCE FOR FAMILIES, CLASSROOMS

“It’s Team Kentucky’s goal to produce financial literacy resources for students and Kentuckians providing help to improve the longevity of Kentuckians’ lives, while also strengthening Kentucky’s economy,” Lt. Gov. Coleman said. The lieutenant governor also serves as Secretary of the Cabinet for Education and Workforce Development.

In support of this goal, Lt. Gov. Coleman offers a virtual reading of The Berenstain Bears’ Trouble with Money. This children’s classic is geared toward readers age 3 to 7 years. The video is appropriate for use by parents or teachers in preschool through second grade. The story provides a good starting point for discussing money with children.

Lt. Gov. Jacqueline Coleman, https://governor.ky.gov/about/lt-governor-jacqueline-coleman, is focused on creating a comprehensive cradle-to-career public education and job training system in Kentucky that will produce the future leaders of our Commonwealth.

The Department of Financial Institutions, http://kfi.ky.gov, is an agency in the Public Protection Cabinet. For more than 100 years, it has supervised the financial services industry by examining, chartering, licensing and registering various financial institutions, securities firms and professionals operating in Kentucky. DFI’s mission is to serve Kentucky residents by promoting access to a stable financial industry, implementing effective and efficient regulatory oversight, enforcing consumer protections, encouraging economic opportunities and encouraging sound financial decisions through financial empowerment programs.

The Kentucky Jump$tart Coalition for Personal Financial Literacy® believes all Kentuckians need to have the financial literacy and money management skills necessary to make informed financial decisions. The Kentucky coalition, www.kyjumpstart.org, is a nonprofit organization affiliated with the national coalition based in Washington, D.C. Kentucky Jump$Start’s goals are to raise awareness about the importance of personal financial literacy, to enhance professional development of Kentucky educators on financial literacy issues, and to coordinate and promote communication and cooperation among coalition members.
