Series

The Kentucky Department of Financial Institutions (DFI) is partnering with the Investor Protection Trust, Detroit Public Television and PBS Books to produce "How to Make Your Earnings Work For You – Through Retirement" on Friday, Sept. 17, 2021, at 1 p.m. ET.

The event will livestream on the Kentucky Public Protection Cabinet's Facebook page at www.facebook.com/kypublicprotection/live.

The event explores ways to ensure that the money you earn today will cover your expenses later in life. Whether you are new to the workforce, or close to embracing retirement, it's important to know how and when to adjust investment accounts.

PBS Books speaks with financial professionals to provide you with instruction on best practices to create a passive income stream, so that money earned today is sustainable through retirement, and well into your golden years. Discover how to allocate your money wisely and learn tips on the smartest ways to cash in on credit card rewards.

This interactive event allows you to engage with financial experts by asking questions live – via Facebook – and gain life-changing strategies to create a stable financial foundation.

After the live event, a recording will be available on DFI's website at https://kfi.ky.gov/newstatic_Info.aspx?static_ID=643, along with links to tools and resources for savers and investors of all ages and at all stages of life.

This is the seventh in a series of 12 Boomers to Zoomers: Building a Secure Path to Retirement virtual events.
