3. The Department conducted a routine examination of Respondent from November 4, 2013 to January 27, 2014. During the examination, the Department discovered that Respondent improperly utilized three unregistered natural persons as loan processors—Rick Bowers, Jessica Anguiana, and Jaime Bower, in violation of KRS 286.8-030(1)(c).

4. The Department possesses a range of administrative authority in addressing violations of the Act, including license revocation or denial, the imposition of fines in an amount up to $25,000 per violation. See KRS 286.8.046.

5. In this case, The Department assessed a fine against Respondent in the amount of one thousand dollars ($3,000.00) for violating KRS 286.8-030(1)(c).

6. In the interest of economically and efficiently resolving the violation(s) described herein, and without Respondent admitting or denying the statements of fact and legal conclusions herein, DFI and Respondent agree as follows:

b. Respondent agrees to and shall pay the total fine assessed herein of three thousand dollars ($3,000.00), which shall be due and payable upon entry of this Agreed Order. The payment shall be in the form of a certified check or money order made payable to “Kentucky State Treasurer” and mailed to the Department of Financial Institutions, Attn: Non-Depository Division – Order, 1025 Capital Center Drive, Suite 200, Frankfort, Kentucky 40601;

c. Respondent agrees to make restitution, by check drawn on the Respondent’s account, to all affected customers by refunding the service fees on the transactions that created the violations and to maintain records—consistent with KRS 286.8-160, .8-170—that such refund checks were issued to the customers and were processed for payment by the customer; if after reasonable due diligence, the customer cannot be located, the Respondent shall notify the Department of its efforts to locate the customer and shall document same in its records;

d. Respondent shall devote the time and resources necessary to ensure continual and full compliance with all statutory requirements set forth in KRS Chapter 286.8.

7. Respondent waives its right to demand a hearing at which it would be entitled to legal representation, to confront and cross examine witnesses, and to present evidence on its own behalf, or to otherwise appeal or set aside this Order.

9. In consideration of execution of this Agreed Order, Respondent for itself, and for its successors and assigns, hereby releases and forever discharges the Commonwealth of Kentucky, The Department, the Office of Legal Services, and each of their members, agents, and employees in their individual capacities, from any and all manner of actions, causes of action, suits, debts, judgments, executions, claims and demands whatsoever, known and unknown, in law or equity, that Respondent ever had, now has, may have or claim to have against any or all of the persons or entities named in this paragraph arising out of or by reason of this investigation, this disciplinary action, this settlement or its administration.

10. By signing below, the parties acknowledge they have read the foregoing Agreed Order, know and fully understand its contents, and that they are authorized to enter into and execute this Agreed Order and legally bind their respective parties.
