DFI Commissioner Charles Vice Elected Treasurer of NASCUS National group focuses on strengthening credit unions via training, advocacy

FRANKFORT, Ky. (June 8, 2022) – Charles A. Vice, commissioner of the Public Protection Cabinet’s Department of Financial Institutions, has been elected treasurer for the remaining 2022-23 term of the National Association of State Credit Union Supervisors, or NASCUS.

Vice is currently serving on the NASCUS Regulator Board, and as of May 31, 2022, the NASCUS Board elected Vice as its treasurer. Vice previously served in leadership roles at the Conference of State Bank Supervisors (CSBS), including the positions of treasurer, vice-chair, chair-elect, and chair. Vice also served as the chair of the CSBS Education Foundation.

“NASCUS is a professional organization dedicated to promoting the state credit union system. I am honored to serve on the NASCUS Board with a group of highly respected state regulators, and I look forward to serving NASCUS as the Board Treasurer,” stated Commissioner Vice.

Vice was appointed commissioner of the Department of Financial Institutions (DFI) in August 2008. As the commissioner of DFI, Vice is responsible for the regulatory oversight of all Kentucky state-chartered financial institutions.

Prior to joining DFI, Vice was an employee of the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation (FDIC) for 18 years. He earned a bachelor’s degree in finance from the University of Southern Mississippi. He resides in Lexington, Ky.
